This story has been 100 % written by Malinda Dollack in 2016, and inspired by Holy Spirit. In 2026, Chat GPT helped in assisting with art. Malinda Dollack 100% decribed the art needed, down to every flower, colour, animal, text etc. Chat GPT then would produce a picture then it would be edited over and over again, sometimes taking days on a picture until the correct pictures formed.

I give permission to all people to use this story to be performed as a Christmas Play and it may be altered in anyway needed.

Dedication

I dedicate this book to my Father God, Jesus, who is my Shepherd, and Holy Spirit who related His story of Jesus's Birth, told through the eyes of Sarah, the three-week-old baby sheep, who was there and witnessed this Glorious Event!

Without Holy Spirit this story could never be told.

I thank You all for this amazing story.

Sarah

Kwa, you can't catch me!

Froggy

I snuggled into the bend of Mama's arm.

We lay in a field near Bethlehem.

"My name is Sarah. I am three-weeks old, the youngest of our flock. I am a black and white Awassi Lamb and look just like Mama. I am still young enough to be allowed the luxury of Mama's warmth. I use her tummy as my pillow. My older siblings cuddle together, snoring happily." I bleet.

Caleb's hooves brush Amos's ear and his face twitches.

I begin to giggle.

"Now, Now Sarah,

settle down. Be a good girl and go to sleep."

Mama bleets.

Today Nathan had missed catching Mr. Frog.

Jumping over a pile of stones, he fell down a steep hill.

"Baa, Baa, I'll get you next time."

He bleeted.

He fumbled, leg after legs looking like a baby trying to get their hoofing.

We had laughed until our chops hurt.

All Nathan had hurt was his pride.

Mr. Frog hopped merrily away croaking,

"Kwa, you can't catch me"

Mr. Frog spoke fluent Hebrew.

Tonight was bright. I looked up into the sky.

"Mama, what is that star?" I bleated.

"I don't know, now try and sleep." Mama bleated.

Our bosses, Mama called them Shepherds, too were staring at the bright new star.

I snuggled in closer to Mama, trying to sleep but the light was just too bright. My eyes popped open.

Light was everywhere. Mama and Papa were now awake, as were all my siblings. I was terrified. I hid behind Mama's leg.

"Quickly children, get behind us." my Papa ordered.

He had moved forward, ready to protect our flock.

Behind Papa stood Mama. We huddled behind.

I peaked out from behind Mama's leg.

The shepherds too, were standing, trembling and were very afraid.

Sarah

Within a moment the most beautiful creature stood among us.

It began to address our bosses.

"What is that, Mama?" I whispered.

"It's an Angel, sent to us directly from our true boss, your real Shepherd, quiet now and listen."

Mama whispered back. Calm overtook the air.

Then the angel began to speak

"Don't be afraid!" he said.

"Do not be afraid. I bring you good news that will cause great joy for all the people. ♥ Today in the town of David a Savior has been born to you; he is the Messiah, the Lord. ♥ This will be a sign to you: You will find a baby wrapped in cloths and lying in a manger."

Luke 2: 10-12 (NIV)

"What is the Angel saying?"

I bleated.

"Quiet, Sarah, I'll explain later."

Mama bleated.

Sarah

Suddenly, more beautiful white creatures appeared, and in unison, as one Glorious Choir.

"Glory to God in the highest heaven,
and on earth peace to those
on whom His favor rests."

Luke 2:14 (NIV)

Then darkness, Only the new star lit the night sky.

"Mama, what did the angels say?"

I bleated, pulling excitedly on Mama's leg tuft.

"A very special baby has been born in Bethlehem, Gods Son."
"Today you will remember forever."

Mama bah-ed.
Mama continued.

"I will always remember, Mama.
Those Angels were beautiful."

Sarah bleated.

Sarah

"Everyone into a line, we are going to see the baby."

Papa announced.

Our family, was going to Bethlehem to see God's baby, how exciting.

I think to myself.

In perfect sheep formation
we walk behind our shepherds.

Gleefully prancing,
I kick up my hooves,
"hurry up! everyone,
I want to see the baby!" I bleat.

The star led our way.

Sarah

Below the star was an open door leading into a stable.

Two people stood next to the manger;
Mary and Joseph.

The star light fell directly on what was in the manger.
It was baby Jesus.

The Shepherds entered the stable and our flock followed.
The Shepherds kneeled.

"Kneel down." my Papa bleated.
"This baby is our true Shepherd." he continued.

Humbly, we kneeled as Mary lifted Jesus up for us to see.

"Look Mama, Jesus is so little just like me." I whispered.

"Quiet Sarah, little Jesus will grow up to save us all."
Mama bleated.

"Save us all." I pondered these words.

What a Glorious Day !

Sarah

The birth of Jesus told through Sarah's eyes, a three week old sheep who lived outside Bethlehem is a fictional story, or is it?

Possibly, it is an account of Jesus's birth not recorded but relayed to me by Holy Spirit.

Only God knows for certain.

For certain,
JESUS is My Shepherd.

For certain,
I am HIS SHEEP!

The Birth of JESUS

Luke 1-20 (NIV)

Sarah

The Birth of Jesus

Luke: 1-20 (NIV)

The Birth of Jesus

2 In those days Caesar Augustus issued a decree that a census should be taken of the entire Roman world. 2 (This was the first census that took place while[a] Quirinius was governor of Syria.) 3 And everyone went to their own town to register.

4 So Joseph also went up from the town of Nazareth in Galilee to Judea, to Bethlehem the town of David, because he belonged to the house and line of David. 5 He went there to register with Mary, who was pledged to be married to him and was expecting a child.

6 While they were there, the time came for the baby to be born, 7 and she gave birth to her firstborn, a son. She wrapped him in clothes and placed him in a manger, because there was no guest room available for them.

8 And there were shepherds living out in the fields nearby, keeping watch over their flocks at night. 9 An angel of the Lord appeared to them, and the glory of the Lord shone around them, and they were terrified. 10 But the angel said to them, "Do not be afraid. I bring you good news that will cause great joy for all the people. 11 Today in the town of David a Savior has been born to you; he is the Messiah, the Lord. 12 This will be a sign to you: You will find a baby wrapped in cloths and lying in a manger."

13 Suddenly a great company of the heavenly host appeared with the angel, praising God and saying,

14 "Glory to God in the highest heaven,
and on earth peace to those
on whom his favor rests."

15 When the angels had left them and gone into heaven, the shepherds said to one another, "Let's go to Bethlehem and see this thing that has happened, which the Lord has told us about."

16 So they hurried off and found Mary and Joseph, and the baby, who was lying in the manger. 17 When they had seen him, they spread the word concerning what had been told them about this child, 18 and all who heard it were amazed at what the shepherds said to them. 19 But Mary treasured up all these things and pondered them in her heart.

20 The shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all the things they had heard and seen, which were just as they had been told.
